

Zeynep Arda

Zeynep Arda is a Graphic/Interaction Designer, Senior Researcher and an Associate Professor at the Visual Communication Design Department, Izmir University of Economics, Turkey.

She is also the Former Department Chair (2014-2022).

She received her PhD degree, and the title Doctor Europaeus Cum Laude in Communication Sciences at Universidad Jaume I, Castellón, Spain, with her dissertation “Image Becomes Identity 2.0”, on online social networks, how they are shaping who we are and how we communicate with one another.

She holds an MA in Interaction Design from Domus Academy, Italy, MFA in Graphic Design from Bilkent University, Turkey. Her alma mater is the City Planning Department, Faculty of Architecture of Middle East Technical University.

Between 2017-2022, she worked on her research “The Artistic Migrant Persona” in Turkey and abroad, funded by the European Union Horizon 2020. Her research interests include virtual worlds, cyberspace and metaverse, artificial intelligence, visual representation, new media, city branding, migration and cultural diversity.

Besides her academic work, she has worked professionally as a designer and consultant with various international teams, companies and brands.

In the academic year 2022-23, on sabbatical leave from her current position in Turkey, she collaborated with the Global Perspectives and International Initiatives team at the University of Central Florida, as a visiting scholar.

She speaks English and Spanish fluently, she is intermediate in Italian and native in Turkish.
